DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 21, 23 and 24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. Claims 21, 23 and 24 include claim limitations expressed in means-plus-function language (e.g. "means for retaining..."; "means for supplying..."; "means for one of opening and folding...") thereby invoking 35 USC 112, sixth paragraph. When means plus function language is employed in a claim, one must set forth in the specification an adequate disclosure showing what is meant by that language. If an applicant fails to set forth an adequate disclosure, the applicant has in effect failed to particularly point out and distinctly claim the invention as required by the second paragraph of section 112. It is submitted that there is no adequate disclosure in the specification for what is meant by the means-plus-function language recited in the claims. See MPEP 2181.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 21, 23 and 24 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in the Office Action mailed 1/4/05.
